KAIULANI STILL LARGEST SCHOOL IN THE ISLANDS

Has Enrolment of 1419, Gain 134 Over Last Year; Central Grammar Second

Mrs. Nina E. D. Fraser, popular principal of the Kaiulani school, Palama, perhaps is the happiest school teacher in Honolulu—or in the territory. And all because her school this year is maintaining its reputation of former years as the largest public educational institution in the territory.

As in former terms, Kaiulani, with its cosmopolitan population of kiddies, is filled to capacity, the latest report showing that the enrolment is 1419. This is a gain of 134 over the registration when school closed last June, which was 1285. The enrolment at Kaiulani by grades is as follows: First, 344; second, 289; third, 206; fourth, 150; fifth, 157; sixth, 127; seventh, 85; eighth, 81.

Central Grammar school is the second largest public institution in the territory, having to date an enrolment of 1189, which is a gain of 376 over last year. With a new 12-room structure in operation, Central Grammar has been able to not only accept a large number of new students, but to accommodate the overflow from various other local public schools. The enrolment at Central Grammar by grades is as follows:

First, 265; second, 163; third, 173; fourth, 132; fifth, 123; sixth, 103; seventh, 107; eighth, 117.

Central grammar has a larger gain in new students than any other public school in Hawaii.

Premier Akquith in reply to a question in the House of Commons, said that he could not undertake to summon Parliament during the coming recess if any proposals were made regarding terms of peace.

STORY NEARLY MADE TROUBLE AT BIG SCHOOL

Japanese Paper Told Nipponese Parents to Send Youngsters to Central Grammar

By prompt action on the part of the department of public instruction and Supervising Principal James Davis, Central Grammar school narrowly escaped being besieged on the opening day of school by young Japanese seeking their initial entrance into the public schools.

According to the department a Japanese newspaper reporter, who interviewed Henry W. Kinney some days ago, either misquoted the superintendent or gave an erroneous impression in his story to the effect that Japanese parents sending their children to school for the first time should enroll them at Central Grammar. The reportment says that two local Japanese papers carried the same story.

News of the publication, however, reached the department before school opened and Principal Davis was despatched to the various Japanese schools to inform the instructors that while Central Grammar would admit such Japanese children as were assigned there, it could not expect to admit all the new Nipponese students. As a result there was no trouble on the opening day of school.

Central Grammar, however, accepted a large number of Japanese pupils who came to the institution in the overflow from other Honolulu schools.

SEEKS TO RECOVER 300 BAGS OF RICE ALLEGED UNLAWFULLY REMOVED

In an action for debt filed in the circuit court today against the Princeville Plantation Company of Kauai, Hee Fat, a Chinese, is attempting to recover 300 bags of rice paddy, valued at $1000, which, he alleges, was unlawfully taken from his property by the plantation. It is claimed that the plantation company took the rice paddy in lieu of a debt alleged to be owed it by Hee Fat. The defendant is represented by the law firm of Lightfoot & Lightfoot.

Warehouses in which hemp was stored at Taaloan, on the island of Laysan, were destroyed by fire at a loss of $325,000.

Dr. Staub and Malcolm Muir were arrested by Mexican authorities at Piedras Negras, charged with being spies for the United States.
